15. Create Write an external style sheet to format the web document of Exercise 1 to apply following effects:
    a. Put a background color and image with gradient overlay.
    b. Make h1 heading 30px, bolder, use color according to your background.
    c. Paragraphs should have font size 15px and choose color according to background.
    d. Increase line spacing in paragraph text.
    e. Highlight important words and use styling for that.
    f. Make h2 heading 20px and choose color according to background.

16. Create a webpage that displays your favourite quotations in a web page just above images. You have to use border, height, width, margin, padding, outline properties of CSS. Also use text and font properties to add effects in text to display quotations.

17. Make a layout template that contains a header and two paragraphs. Use float to line up the two paragraphs as columns side by side. Give the header and two paragraphs a border and/or a background color so you can see where they are.

18. Create an infinite animation of an element moving in a square pattern.

19. Create a transformation program that includes four images. When the user mouse hover an image, the size of the image should increase by 20%.

20. Implement a one page personal website to present your resume. Design of the webpage should be like given example.

    https://sachagreif.com/

    Your webpage should also have a navigation menu.

21. Create a Home Page for Banasthali's Website look like following website.
    https://gsas.harvard.edu/

Menu should be

About Us | Academics | Research | Campus & Facilities | School Education | Admissions

And top bar should be

News & Events| International | Careers| Placements |Alumni | Contact Us| Login Hub

You should use your own color scheme and background only the layout should be followed.